IMPORTANT MANUFACTORY.

The manufactory for cotton yarns in the neighboring county of Pike is of such immense importance to our people just now, that it might become an object with the enemy to destroy it. The destruction of the Cumberland Iron Works in Tennessee assures us that every establishment of importance to our prosperity will share like fate.

We have taken pains to inquire, and are fully satisfied that the enterprising and industrious manager, Mr. Merrell is conducting the operations in a manner the most advantageous to the whole community and in a spirit of justice to all. The prices charged are moderated, being considerably below those charge by similar establishments in Georgia and other parts of the South. This is the only factory here accessible to our citizens. People anxiously flock to purchase this necessary article from a hundred miles distant, and that in such numbers as to render it impossible to supply the demand. Being thus without competition Mr. Merrell deserves high credit for his anxiety to accommodate the wants of the community at moderate rates, when he has it in his power to act the extortioner.

Washington Telegraph, Washington, Arkansas, May 21, 1862, page 2, column 1.

MR. MERRILL AND THE COTTON FACTORY.

The "Ouachita Herald" takes notice of our article in commendation of the Pike county factory, and adds the following:

"If our neighbor of the Telegraph is not wrongly informed, Mr. Merrill is entitled not only to the thanks of the people of South Arkansas, but to a more substantial remuneration. But may not our confrere have been imposed upon to some extent. When the State Bonds were first passed into circulation, some merchants refused to take them, because, as they said, they could not replenish their stocks with them. In other words the bonds would not be received in payment in New Orleans and other places, where they made their purchases. There is now, or was a few days since, cotton yarns from Pike county Factory, for sale in this place; but change-tickets, Treasury warrants, War Bonds, or Confederate notes would not buy them, for the reason, as we are informed, that gold and silver had been paid for the goods and they must be sold for gold and silver. This may not be considered extortioning (extortion) on the part of Mr. Merrill, or the Company for whom he is acting, but it looks to us very nearly allied to it."

The original notice upon our part was prompted by the fear, that a portion of our community, might do a hasty and injudicious thing. It is a matter of popular discussion now and of course no secret. Many have become incensed with Mr. Merrill, and there has been much talk of taking forcible possession of his factory, and running it for the benefit of the community.

We are not personally acquainted with Mr. Merrill. We do not remember having ever met him, nor have we any business relations with any one connected with the factory. Still, as a friend of the community, desirous in these troubled times, of making the best of things, and satisfied of the incalculable advantage of this factory to our community, as now worked, we thought it our duty to present that aspect of the case to our readers. What we said was not by way of favoritism. We are anxious that our estimable housewives through the country may continue to get as least a reasonable chance at spun thread, and we are convinced that any attempts at violence upon the property of the company, would entirely stop its operation. We have no confidence that any man or body of men would undertake the charge of running the factory as a charity, and keep it up. It is notorious that "what is everybody's business is nobody's" and amidst the vexations and expenses of so extensive a business, nothing short of a master mind, prompted by hope of profit will sustain it. Ebullitions of patriotism although very magnificent at the time are notoriously short lived amongst the best of us. The humdrum and everlasting recurring cares of life wear it out monstrously. So we thought and said, and still assert that Mr. Merrill is doing good. He serves the public. That is no less true, even although he may enrich himself thereby, as is likely enough. We had better let him alone. Whether he be a bad or good man lies between him and his Maker and is no concern of ours. What we want is spun thread.

So much, by way of personal explanation partly, but at the same time addressed to the more violent and still dissatisfied portion of our community, for practical consideration.

Washington Telegraph, Washington, Arkansas, June 4, 1862, page 2, column 3. To be continued as Part 2 in "The Gems" Spring 1994, Volume 5, Number 2.

LETTER

My maiden name is Chaney. My Chaney family came back to Pike County, Arkansas ca 1867 however they are missing on the 1870 census. I am interested in several families ... including Chaney, Wilson, Gillham, Stone, McDonield, Whisenhunt, Blackwood, Kesterson. Several of these were sitting on the western & northern Sevier-Pike line very early. My *Chaney*s are connected with the old Francis Chaney who settled at (the) mouth of (the) South Fork of (the) Caddo River (in the) 1830's which today is Montgomery (county) but then was Pike, Clark, Hot Springs (counties) etc. It's hard to research when you have people in a corner with boundaries changing. I believe (Francis Chaney) to be the person who blazed the Chaney Trace into Pike County.

LETTER

I would be interested in knowing ... of any Picketts that lived in the Bingen area of Pike County ca. 1890-1900. My gg grandfather William Jefferson Pickett had a brother John David Pickett who moved from Ouachita Co., AR to the Bingen area by ca. 1890 and became a prosperous farmer. By 1900 he had moved to Smith Co., TX. I located him and his wife, Jane residing there in 1900 and they both died shortly after the census. There was also one son, Robert Miller Pickett who married and died in Smith Co. TX. However, John David Pickett had 7 children. I cannot account for John B. Pickett, Daisy Pickett, Thomas Hendrick Pickett and Maude E. Pickett. I thought maybe they remained or returned to the Pike County area.

QUERIES

CORNELIUS, CROW, KEITH, HARNESS, ELKINS, HARDIN I would like to correspond with anyone researching these families. I am attempting to put together a family group that includes these brothers: Jester Clinton Cornelius born 1819 Arkansas; William Cornelius born 1813 Missouri; and Rubin Raglin Cornelius born 1811 Missouri. Names of other probably related Cornelius include: Clabourn born 1790-1800; Henry Z. born 1801 (wife may be Sarah Crow); Jepthy/Jesse born 1800-1810; Mary born 1780-1790; Thomas J. born 1812; Citty (Letty) that married John Elkins; and Sally that married Joseph Hardin. All lived (in) Clark or Hempstead counties. Possibly included are Daniel of Lafayette County and Elihu born 1780-1790.

I am working to prove/disprove a connection between these Cornelius and one Jeptha Cornelius of Cape Girardeau County, Missouri in 1803 and of Lawrence County, Arkansas where he died by 1818. Christy Harness was the executor of the estate and later turns up in Clark County, Arkansas with a donation land grant of 360 acres as do Mary and Henry Cornelius, Nicholas Keith and James W. Crow and wife Keziah (Cornelius?). The grant replaces land in Lovely County, Arkansas which was Indian land and settled illegally. Mary's land was on the river and part was in present day Pike County. A Joseph Hardin is listed in the Probate records of Lawrence County, Arkansas in the 1820's. Is this the same man that lived in the Pike/Clark County area of Arkansas, listed in the 1850 Census of Clark County, Arkansas, Antoine Township household #352 next door to a Betsy Hardin and her family? Can Betsy Hardin be identified? What was her husband's name? Was Sally Cornelius the mother of any of the Hardin children?

CEMETERY IN DIERKS, ARKANSAS & GREENS CHAPEL (METHODIST) CEMETERY, WHEELER Information and records pertaining to the cemetery in Dierks, AR and the Green Chapel (Methodist) Cemetery. I am in search of the grave of my paternal grandmother Bobbie Martin Wheeler who reportedly died July 28, 1918 and was buried at Dierks, AR. She was the wife of Charles Campbell Wheeler and they were married in Lampasas County, Texas on October 16, 1890. They were reportedly returning to Texas from Kentucky and it is not known how long they were in the Dierks, AR area. Any information ... would be appreciated.

DRAPER, HARRIS, HARDCASTLE The information I need concerns families living in New Hope (Pike County, Arkansas). My great-grandmother was Susan Elizabeth Draper. Her father was Coleman Draper who was married to Rebecca (Harris) Draper. Susan Elizabeth Draper married Thomas Hardin Hardcastle on December 24, 1893. They had seven children born in New Hope: my grandfather Noel Preston born August 27, 1907; Hestor; Elmore; Hubert; Joel Warren; Elva; and Fairy Grace.

CORRECTION

Isabel (McKinley) Huddleston enumerated in the household of her son William Lemuel Huddleston in Brewer Township in 1850 was indicated as the widow of Archibald Huddleston of North Carolina in the original circulated issue of THE GEMS, Fall 1993, Volume 4, No. 4, page 41. She was the widow of James Huddleston and not Archibald Huddleston. Archibald Huddleston died in Pike County, Arkansas in February 1850 age 73. He married Lavina Wood on August 25, 1842 in Pike County, Arkansas. He had a previous marriage with children.

The Pike County, Arkansas Marriage Restoration Project has been successful. There are about 1800 entries in the current database. The compiler and editor David L. Kelley has determined a need to do further research and correspondence for at least one more year to recover [as many as possible] the maiden names of brides for 600 entries where this information has not yet been found. A majority of these entries are for more recent marriages several determined from the 1900 Pike County, Arkansas census "number of years married" column. It is likely a significant number of these maiden names can be recovered. A list will be printed in the next two issues of The Gems.
